Daisy is the proud mother of three cuddly pups. She teaches them all kinds of useful tricks, which the very young instantly recognise as terribly naughty! For there is a toddler in this family too, so whenever Daisy instructs her own pups, Baby joins in! There is immediate rapport between story toddler and young reader, and the very clear text and repetition encourage the youngest child to join in. Kopper's illustrations are full of fun, down to the Mother's despair on discovering the havoc wreaked by Daisy, pups and Baby. A book to be enjoyed in every Nursery and Reception classroom.
