Fritz, 'who scared his folks out of their wits' will be enjoyed by six to tens. You can guess what a commotion is caused when this mischievous boy goes to the zoo in his very realistic-looking gorilla suit: there's a bumper treat of mistaken identities! The text is witty in its quirkiness: 'Meanwhile, Fritz's mum was cross. Where Fritz was, she was at a loss.' The picture are light and bright: surreal in places. It's a superb combination of author and artist and one well worth stocking.
