Frank Asch's delightful bear here learns to play hide-and-seek, first of all with a bird. Later when it's dark he tries the new game with the moon. But the wind blows a cloud across to hide the moon and the bear looks everywhere for it; then when the wind blows the cloud away again he finds it. Beautifully told and illustrated, this little book builds anticipation and curiosity and is brought to a satisfactory and happy conclusion. An enjoyable one for small children - and adults too!
