This sequel to the very entertaining Mr Majeika was something of a disappointment both to me and my audience of seven-year-olds. All the familiar characters are there: Pete and Jody, Mr Potter, the obnoxious Hamish Bigmore and Mr Majeika himself as well as Miss Worlock, a new member of staff at St Bartys. But somehow Mr Majeika's magic doesn't sparkle as much in this story; nevertheless fans should enjoy it either as a read aloud or as a solo read.
