Here's an adventure novel where the plot brims with startling notions and fantastical ideas. Sometimes the expression is a little clumsy but the sheer invention and pace should keep fantasy lovers happy as two sets of twins, one pair aliens, strive to subdue the evil Shadrash the Betrayer. He has held Erath in his thrall for 600 years and only Gilan, the last prince of Erath, can conquer him - that is, only with the combined powers of each of his young companions and a very evil-tempered mouse named Wikkit. After a ragged beginning this makes an exciting read.
