

Winnie the Pooh | Winnie the Pooh with The House at Pooh Corner

Books Reviewed:

Winnie the Pooh [1]

Books Reviewed:

Winnie the Pooh with The House at Pooh Corner [2]

Issue:

71 [3]

Reviewer:

Rachel Redford [4]

Editorial Choice:

off

Media type:

Audio

BfK Rating:

0

Pooh, the beloved Bear of Little Brain, with his ponderous hums and his clock stopped at smackerel time, is loved as much by nostalgic parents as by children. These careful abridgements include all Pooh's friends: desultory Eeyore moping on his birthday, Kanga with her wonderful Australian twang bathing Roo, Piglet philosophising with Pooh in his distinctive Piglet way - in fact all the Essential Pooh. Choice of narration is between the classic, vigorous storytelling of Lionel Jeffries and the idiosyncratic presentation of Alan Bennett which is exactly right for Pooh's quirky humour tinged with light melancholy. Both are excellent.

Running Order:

17

Source URL (retrieved on Jun '20): <http://typo3.booksforkeeps.co.uk/issue/71/childrens-books/reviews/winnie-the-pooh-%C2%A6-winnie-the-pooh-with-the-house-at-pooh-corner>

Links:

[1] <http://typo3.booksforkeeps.co.uk/childrens-books/winnie-the-pooh-0>

[2] <http://typo3.booksforkeeps.co.uk/childrens-books/winnie-the-pooh-with-the-house-at-pooh-corner>

[3] <http://typo3.booksforkeeps.co.uk/issue/71>

[4] <http://typo3.booksforkeeps.co.uk/member/rachel-redford>