Listed as six stories for 7-8 year-olds, there are some really spooky moments here: dauntless Mary in Diana Starkey's story who entertains a headless ghost and even more chilling is Pamela Oldfield's tale where Fiona is trapped inside the garden shed whilst her cousin, locked outside, can hear only the sound of a spade hitting the ground and a man's voice calling 'Dig faster!' Atmosphere is further heightened by sound effects - Fiona's desperate sobbing; the echoing scream of the Witch mingling with the wind in Paul Biegel's story. There's humour, too, in Penelope Lively's ghost oozing out of the bottom drawer and starting to knit.
