You'll remember Dear Zoo in which the zoo sends various unsuitable pets? Well, suppose the pets had not been sent back but had stayed in your house ... This book starts with a letter to the zoo as well, but imagines the result if the giraffe, the lion, the monkey were living with the little boy who sent for them. Unfortunately, Mum puts her foot down at the end of the week... but how could she have missed the gorilla under the table? Good for young beginners with print.
