This humorous football yarn has Year 10 boys as its principals, plotting to manage a local team of men, but the format looks as though it's for a younger audience. Their scam to save Rumney from relegation succeeds in committing at least five criminal offences but, of course, they do such an ace job all is forgiven as the seemingly inevitable is reversed. I can't see everyone warming to it, but I reckon it'll be welcomed and thoroughly enjoyed by the fans.
