A beautifully written and illustrated fairytale. It has parallels with the traditional Cinderella, but is further extended so that once Oona and the prince have married, one of the ugly stepsisters seeks revenge. Cormac (who is Oona's foster-mother's grandchild) witnesses the crime and it's due to his faithfulness and his grandmother's magic powers that there's a happy ending. A truly magical tale - a Jenny Nimmo classic which will encapture readers of all ages.
