Vicious Leopogs and electric prods are the main weapons used by the shape-changing keepers (Cosmic Gardeners) to subdue and control the species of apes kept in zoo-like conditions for their cosmic visitors to view and admire - in Parkland. Human apes, like Cassie, share the incarceration too and along with it, a desperate craving for freedom. This long fantasy thriller works on many levels and leaves one with much to ponder on, particularly about political systems and society's approach to individuals' worth.
